Sharpening the view: Infrastructure investors look to gain clarity amid complexity in 2026

BY IZZET BENSUSAN

If 2025 was the year of turbulence, 2026 is shaping up to be one of stabilization. Last year brought big shifts, with a new administration constantly pulling economic levers and an artificial intelligence (AI)-driven boom reverberating through the power sector.

The money pump: How infrastructure investors can avoid the extrapolator's trap

BY GEOFFREY DOHRMANN

In their 2023 book The Missing Billionaires: A Guide to Better Financial Decisions, Victor Haghani and James White present a thought-provoking essay titled "Extrapolators Beware the Money Pump." It is a cautionary tale about how investors who base decisions solely on past returns can be systematically exploited – even when investing in assets with positive expected returns.
